Now is the Time to Get the House Ready for Christmas Festivities.

How better can you do this than to purchase $10.00 worth of Soaps, Toilet Articles, Teas, Coffees and Spices, things you need and use every day of your life; then selecting one of our beautiful premiums as a Christmas gift to some one of your family.

We Have Got the Very Best Proposition that has been placed before the people of this vicinity. If you will only take the pains to find out for yourself you will readily see that what we say is perfectly true. With our plan you have only to purchase $10.00 worth of Products, not $18.00 or $20.00 as you have with others to get identically the same premiums. Besides we allow you to trade one dollar or more at a time until you get the required $10.00. In this way it does not become a hardship and you are at the same time providing the way whereby you can furnish your home with desirable articles of Furniture.

Our Products Will Speak for Themselves

We have proven to the satisfaction of those who have tried them that we are giving as good and, in many instances, better values in Products than any other house doing a similar business.

TRY US AND FIND OUT

We are showing today in our window a variety of Premiums to go with an order for $10.00. A glance at them will convince you of their excellent value. They include Morris Chairs, Easy Rockers, Rattan Rockers, Couches, Couch Beds, Desks, Work Tables, Lamps, Portieres, Lace Curtains, Rugs, etc. Make your Christmas selections from these useful articles.

DISPUTE OVER A BEQUEST.

Advent Mission Society of Boston Gets $1,000 From Brattleboro Estate.

Brattleboro, Dec. 12.—An interesting case was heard by the probate court Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Jane E. Atwater died in March, 1906, leaving several bequests to Methodist and Advent societies, and since then the estate has been settled and the legacies paid. The Seventh Day Adventist society of Brattleboro, Mich., was given two bequests of $1,000 each and the American Advent Mission society of Boston one bequest of $1,000.

A short time ago lawyer John E. Gale, of Guilford, petitioned the probate court to allow the American Advent Mission society interest on the bequest, the estate not then having been distributed. Thereupon the Seventh Day society laid claim to the bequest to the mission society, claiming that it was intended for the Seventh Day society, the typewritten copy of the will reading "Adventist" instead of "Advent." In court yesterday it was shown that the original of the will read "Advent" and it was also shown that when Mrs. Atwater dictated her will she was asked if she meant one of the bequests to go to a society represented by A. H. Davis, whom she had recently heard set forth the principles of that society, and that she answered in the affirmative. Mr. Eavies represented the Advent Mission society. When this testimony was offered the other society withdrew and the court decreed that the bequest should go to the Advent Mission society.

SUES TOWN FOR $10,000.

Attempts to Recover Damages From Brattleboro For Accident.

Brattleboro, Dec. 12.—George H. Barrett of West Brattleboro has brought suit against the town of Brattleboro for damages in the sum of $10,000. The case will be tried at the April term of the Windham county court.

Mr. Barrett and William F. Sullivan, a pair of horses and a load of wood broke through a bridge in West Brattleboro last August and struck on rocks below. Mr. Barrett was badly hurt and has not yet recovered. He says in his writ that he probably never will fully recover, and he alleges that the accident was caused solely by reason of the rotten and decayed condition of the bridge. A. C. Spencer and G. C. Pitts are Mr. Barrett's attorneys.

Girard's Injuries Prove Fatal.

Rumford Falls, Me., Dec. 12.—Henri Girard, a restaurant employe who made a sensational leap from the foot bridge over the Androscoggin river Tuesday night in attempt to commit suicide by drowning, died yesterday from injuries received by falling onto the rocks twenty-five feet below. Two friends attempted to hold him after he had climbed upon the railing of the bridge, but the man fought until he freed himself and leaped into the darkness. He fell short of the water and landed upon the rocks.

Girard was about 25 years old, came from St. Lambert, P. Q., and leaves a widow and one child. He had not been living with his wife for five years and was despondent.
